How to use your gift card

The Card should be protected as though it is cash.

The Card may be used as full or part payment for any decorating goods at the Wilko stores informed to you by the Card Provider . It must be presented at the checkout along with any additional identification requirements (as informed to you by the Card Provider). The total value of the goods will be deducted from the balance on the Card. The Card balance will be shown on each till receipt and you can also check the Card's balance at the checkout.

No change will be given in cash but the remaining balance can be applied to future purchases. Where the Card has been used to purchase goods that are subsequently returned or exchanged for goods of a lower value, the monies owing will be credited to the Card.

The balance on the Card cannot be redeemed for cash and cannot be returned to you if the Card is lost, stolen, defaced or damaged. Wilko reserve the right to restrict use of the Card if suspicious, fraudulent or illegal activities are suspected. Only original, undamaged Cards will be accepted.

The Card is not a credit, charge or cheque guarantee card and cannot be resold. After it has been activated, the card will expire if it is not used for 12 consecutive months (excluding balance enquiries), any balance remaining will be forfeited and reduced to nil. Please note that some Card Providers may specify a shorter time to use the card, and this should be checked directly with the Card Provider.

You will only be able to use the Card to purchase products that are subject to age restrictions if you can provide proof that you are of the appropriate age.

Wilko reserve the right to amend these terms and/or discontinue the Card scheme at any time with reasonable notice. Such notices will be displayed throughout Wilko stores in reasonably prominent areas.
